

use volt meter set to d.c. to test motor contact tabs underside of decoder left rail pick up

right rail pick up

attach alligator clips to these points, be careful not to short anything out attach other end of test leads to track rails